Sir,

Sub:- Denial of information by CPIO - First Appeal dated 10-6-2009

I have considered and carefully examined the First Appeal dated 10-6-2009 submitted by you against the decision taken by the Public Information Officer, Cochin Port Trust, vide his letter No.Secy/RTI/2005/S dated 3-6-2009 on your application dated 20-5-2009.

On examining your appeal petition, it is seen that you have asked for information on some queries/questions. In this connection, it is intimated that as per Section 2(f) of the Right to Information Act, 2005, 'information' means any material in any form. The information sought for by you are not readily available in any form. In this case, the CPIO has to compile/tabulate the information in order to furnish the same to you. Further, the Central Information Commission, New Delhi, has decided that "as one of the objective of the RTI is to scrutinize public action, a CPIO is not expected to undertake a fresh exercise to compile and gather the information for promotion of personal interest of a requester." (Decision No.1794/IC(A)/2007/F dated 31-12-2007).

However, I, being the Appellate Authority, inclined to take lenient view and furnish the following available information:

1. Yearwise strike details in Cochin Port Trust.

2004	5.00	Nil
