The Public Information Officer
Indian Oil Corporation
LPG Division
Coimbatore

Dear Sir,

Sub: The following informations are required under RTI Act 2005 – Reg

We kindly request you to furnish the following details as per provisions of the RTI Act 2005.

Many of our members have LPG connections both from Bharath and Indane in the name of husband and wife respectively. Both are living in one door number and having one ration card.

Now your distributors have asked them to surrender either Indane or Bharath connection. Your kind attention is invited to the judgment released by the Madurai Branch of Honorable High Court of Judicative , Madras in October 2009 stating that as individuals, both husband and wife are entitled to have separate LPG connections in their names even though they are living under one roof with same door number.

Following informations are required

1. Are you compelling now the consumers to surrender the second connection in separate names under one roof with same door number?
2. Did you impose your distributors to adhere the judgment pronounced by the Madurai Branch of Honorable High Court of Judicative Madras?

I am herewith attaching a postal order No 43E 946811 for ₹. 10/- being the fee for the RTI application.

Thank you

Yours,

(Raj Rajkumar)
President
